PHILADELPHIA PLANNING MEMORIAL FOR WAR HEROES

By The Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 7.—Plans are under way for holding a big peace celebration in this city and for erecting a memorial to the men of Philadelphia who gave their services in the war against Germany. It is proposed to have the celebration exceed in magnitude the Peace Jubilee of 1898, after the Spanish-American war ended.

The memorial may take the form of a monument, an obelisk or an arch to be erected on the great new parkway

the city is now completing.

Mayor Smith in his appeal for funds with which to build the memorial says:

"The memorial is to commemorate for all time the bravery of our soldiers, soldiers and marines overseas, and the patriotic self-sacrificing, soul-inspiring actions of the women of Philadelphia."

The suggestion has been made that the city rename some of its principal streets for noted military leaders of the Allies. Such names as Pershing, Joffre, Haig, Allenby and Diaz have been submitted.

PACIFIC LINER FOUNDERS

Honolulu, Dec. 7.—Seven lives were lost when the steamer Benito Juarez, sailing between San Francisco and Manoa, foundered in a storm Tuesday 10 miles northeast of Molokai channel.

Survivors have been landed.

The city is now completing.
